Conferences for the international surfaces industry:

Decorative Surfaces Conference 2024

Subtitle: The 2024 Decorative Surfaces Conference was successfully held in Berlin from 12 to 14 March 2024

Langenzersdorf, 19 March 2020 – The 2024 Decorative Surfaces Conference held from 12 to 14 March in Berlin brought together industry professionals, researchers, and experts to discuss the latest trends and innovations in decorative surfaces. The conference featured 23 speakers who presented on a wide range of topics related to surface design, materials, technologies, and applications.

Some of the key highlights from the conference include discussions on the latest advancements in digital printing technology for decorative surfaces, innovative surface treatments and coatings, sustainable materials for surface design, and emerging trends in surface textures and finishes. Speakers also addressed the importance of color and pattern in surface design, as well as the impact of surface aesthetics on consumer preferences and market trends.

The event was supported by 14 Sponsors: Arcolor, Italian Exhibition Group, Neos, Hymmen, Agfa, Koenig & Bauer, Ava Cad Cam, Munksjoe, ColorGate, Ricoh, IPAC, Cruse, Metis and CGS Oris.

The conference provided a valuable platform for networking and knowledge sharing among attendees, who represented various sectors of the decorative surfaces industry, including architecture, interior design, furniture manufacturing, and materials technology. Participants had the opportunity to learn from leading experts in the field, exchange ideas and best practices, and gain insights into the future of decorative surface design.

Overall, the 2024 Decorative Surfaces Conference in Berlin was a successful event that fostered collaboration and innovation within the industry. Attendees left with new ideas, contacts, and perspectives that will help them stay ahead of the curve in the fast-evolving world of decorative surfaces.
